

In order to support the important development of its activities, EUMEDICA, a pharmaceutical group with more than 90 employees, is looking for a

Regulatory Affairs Officer

Job description:

You will assist the Regulatory Affairs Manager by:

- Redaction, submission and follow-up of registrations, variations, renewals...
- Follow-up of national and international legislations,
- Check of regulatory conformity of registration files, packaging materials...
- Contact with national and international Healthcare Authorities,
- Taking part of strategical regulatory meetings.

Profile:

- Minimum 3 years experience in Regulatory Affairs, including redaction of variations,
- Minimum bachelor degree with scientific orientation,
- Computer skills (a first experience in publishing is an asset),
- Ideally bilingual French/English. Dutch is an asset,
- Organised, pro-active, team player, flexible.

We offer:

- A full time job with a long term contract,
- A salary package matching your competence,
- A dynamic and ambitious environment with possibility to develop your skills.

Working place:

New research center at Manage/Seneffe (Hainaut).

If you are interested, please send your application and your CV to Eumedica, for the attention of Mr. Eric Spilborghs (Human Resources Manager) :

- by email: jobs@eumedica.com,

- or by letter: Chemin de Nauwelette 1, 7170 Manage, quoting « Regulatory Affairs Officer » in the subject line.